Excerpt of pertinent information :

The First General Congress of the United Syndicates opened in Bucharest on 26 January and may close on 30 January. Present at the opening were. . . General Radescu and other ministers of the Rumanian Government. . . The Congress marks the first opening for labor since 1940, when meetings were suppressed. . . The aims of the movement were stated as follows: (a) to organize and strengthen the workers' unions; (b) to form the farmers into agricultural syndicates and into the "Frontul Plugarilor." When both are formed and strong, they are to be combined into the United Proletariat. . . Growing currents. . . a strong protest against Radescu to allow the broadcasting of the Congress proceedings and demands that radio control be transferred from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to Gheorghiu - Dej's Ministry of Communications.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
